Program Strengths

• Students placing at 200 or 300 level courses may receive up to 8 departmental advanced placement credits for prior level courses, if the credits have not already been earned through AP or transfer.

• Language Placement Testing: If a student has prior language learning, the language placement test determines placement for 101, 102, 203, or 204 slcr.wsu.edu/placement-testing/

• Advising for International Area Studies, an option in the general studies program, is provided in Foreign Languages and Cultures.

• Scholarships are offered annually for new and ongoing students, and/or for study abroad. Students may complete up to 12 credits a semester or 18 credits for two semesters in a study abroad program to count as coursework in their language majors

• Students are encouraged to participate in a study abroad program.

• Students are encouraged to participate in internship and experiential learning opportunities.
