Degree Options
Bachelor of Arts in Political Science
   General Political Science
   Global Politics
   Political Science Pre-Law

Minors
Political Science

Program Strengths
• Nationally recognized faculty have a wide range of research and teaching interests.
• Faculty members routinely lend their expertise to a broad range of local, state, and national government agencies and nongovernmental groups.
• The use of active learning approaches to instruction are used extensively, involving elaborate policy-making simulations, crisis-management simulations, and a highly accomplished Mock Trial Team.
• Our recent graduates have attended law school at Boston College, Gonzaga University, Indiana University, Northeastern University, University of Washington, American University, and University of San Francisco, and graduate school in public affairs at Texas A&M and American University. They have worked for the King County Prosecutor and the Inspector General’s Office at the U.S. Department of Justice.
• Paid and for Credit Internships in Government and NGO’s.
• Active Political Science Honors Chapter

Student Clubs
Mock Trial
Political Science
Political Science Honors Society
Pre-Law Society

Career Options
Government service       Marketing and sales
Public policy            Nonprofit
Regional planning        administration
Law                     Consultant
Campaign worker
Politics

Admission to the Major Requirements
Students may be admitted as a Political Science major upon declaring their intent to the department.

Suggested Classes for Freshmen
POL S 101: American National Government
POL S 102: Introduction to Comparative Politics
POL S 103: International Politics
UCORE requirements

Suggested Classes for Transfer Students
Meet with an advisor to determine which courses are needed.

Math Requirement
Any UCORE, most commonly:
   MATH 105: Exploring Mathematics
   MATH 212: Introduction to Statistical Methods
   PHIL 201: Elementary Logic

Core Courses
POL S 101: American National Government
POL S 102: Introduction to Comparative Politics
POL S 103: International Politics
POL S 201: Political Research Methods

For more information:
pppa.wsu.edu
pppa@wsu.edu
509-335-2544

Advisor
Teresa Woolverton
twool@wsu.edu
Johnson Tower 827
509-335-1291