AMY G. MAZUR

Professor
School of Politics, Philosophy, and Public Affairs

Amy G. Mazur's teaching and research focus on comparative feminist policy issues, with particular emphasis on French government and comparative methodology. An internationally recognized political scientist, she is also an associate researcher at the Centre d'Études Européennes et de Politique Comparée at Sciences Po, Paris, and has published nine books, 44 chapters, and numerous articles from her work.

Mazur's research has attracted funding from the U.S. National Science Foundation, the European Science Foundation, the French Ministry of Social Affairs, and the Norwegian National Science Foundation, and she has been a visiting scholar at several institutions overseas.

She co-convenes the international Gender Equality Policy in Practice Network (GEPP), a large-scale research project on the implementation and impact of gender equality policy across multiple sectors in more than 50 countries. She is also lead editor of French Politics and served eight years as co-editor of Political Research Quarterly.

At WSU, Mazur has received a number of honors for her work, including a Faculty Woman of Distinction award and the college's Outstanding Achievement in International Teaching, Research, and Creative Activities and Excellence in Professional Service awards. In 2011, she also received the Midwest Political Science Association Women's Caucus's Professional Achievement Award.

Mazur served as undergraduate director/assessment coordinator for her school from 2016 to 2020 and advised the Political Science Club and the Political Science Honor's Society. She received the Pi Sigma Alpha Best Chapter Advisor Award in 2019 in recognition of her work with students.
