Application deadline: January 26, 2024

Award amount: $1000-$4000

Contact: CAS Grant and Fellowship Support, cas.gfs@wsu.edu

The College of Arts and Sciences is pleased to announce the availability of research, scholarship, or creative activity funding for graduate students in the 2024/2025 academic year. Award amounts range from $1000 to $4000, dependent upon the funding source.

Eligibility

Currently enrolled part-time or full-time graduate students in any discipline within the College of Arts and Sciences at Washington State University are eligible. Students must meet CAS scholarship eligibility criteria in order to receive a scholarship.

Awards (Applicants may apply for the General Research, Scholarship or Creative Activity Award or the Boeing Graduate Fellowship)

1. General Research, Scholarship and Creative Activities

Multiple scholarship funds will support students engaged in new or continuing projects or conference travel in science, social science, humanities, or arts disciplines, or an entrepreneurial effort.

2. Boeing Graduate Fellowship in Environmental Studies

The Boeing Fellowship provides support for the multi-disciplinary study of environmental issues, including sociological, political, historical, cultural, literary, artistic, and scientific bases. A research project or creative activity that addresses some aspect of an important environmental issue or problem will be the primary selection criterion. The fellowship period will be for one academic year, beginning in Summer 2024 and ending with the Spring 2025 semester.
