General Studies: Liberal Arts
College of Arts and Sciences

Degree Options
Bachelor of Arts in Social Sciences
Bachelor of Arts in Humanities

Additional tracks within the humanities degree:
- Linguistics
- International Area Studies
- Religious Studies

Minors
American Indian Studies
Certificate in American Indian Studies

Program Strengths
- Play a major role in designing your own degree.
- Choose from a wide variety of jobs and careers.
- Multiple internship opportunities for job experience.

Career Options
Business, including small, startup companies
Politics and Government
Social services
Teaching
Journalism
Activism
Marketing and public relations
Publishing, editing, and technical and creative writing
Banking
Insurance

Suggested Classes for Freshmen
Focus on UCORE and take one or two introductory courses to determine interest level

Suggested Classes for Transfer Students
Any humanities, social sciences, sciences, UCORE; any coursework for degree concentrations

Math Requirement
Any UCORE, most commonly:
- Math 105: Exploring Mathematics
- Math 212: Introduction to Statistical Methods
- Phil 201: Elementary Logic
- Fin 223: Personal Finance

Core Courses
Determined by major areas or concentrations.

For more information:
genstudies.wsu.edu
cas.gs@wsu.edu
509-335-8731
Daggy Hall 201

Advisors
Anna Chow
ychow@wsu.edu

Theresa Lavoie
theresa.lavoie@wsu.edu

Alma Rocha
alma_rocha@wsu.edu